C O far Protestants and Papists agre in Points of Faith; and it had bee happy if the Papists had rested here, a the Protestants do. But the Papist have added many more Things as Ar ticles of Faith, which are contrary t the Holy Scriptures, and were never re ceived by the Catholick Church, nor decreed by the Church of Rome itself, til the Time of Pope Prus IV. and the Council of Trent; by which she has cor rupted the Simplicity of the Primitiv Faith, and made it necessary for us to fortake her Communion. The NEW AR TICLES which the Church of Rome has added to the foregoing CREED, and which Protestants reject as false, are those which follow, on which are made some short Oservations.

The Twelve fo lowing ARTICLES were added by the Papists, contrary to the Holy Scriptures.

First Popish Article.

ART. I. I most stedfastly admit and embrace the Apostolical and Ecclesiassical Traditions, with the rest of the Constitutions and Observations of the said Church.

Observe here, how the Church of Rome begins her new Doctrines with a blind or implicit Faith: well knowing how meedful that is to the Belief of them. What is Apostolical, we must learn from the Apostles Writings, and the Times soon after they lived: But we know too well, that the Church of Rome calls many Things Apostolical, which are not only not to be found in the Apostles Writings, nor in the primitive Times, but are contrary to them.

The Second Popish Article.

ART. II. I also receive the Holy Scriptures according to that Sense, which the holy Mother Church (to whom it belongs to judge of the true Sense and Interpretation of the Holy Scripture) did, and doth hold: Nor will I ever take and interpret it otherwise than according to the unanimous Consent of the Fathers.

The Protestant's Note.

Observe, The Papists ought to agree among themselves who is the infallible Judge of Scripture, and to present us with an Infallible Interpretation of it, before before they require from us a Belief this Article. Things necessary to Salvation may be known in Holy Scriptus by those who cannot read the Fathers.

The Third Popish Article.

ART. III. I do also profess, that the are truly and properly Seven Sacrament of the New Law, instituted by our Lor Jesus Christ, and are necessary to the Salvation of Mankind, (although all th Sacraments are not necessary to every Per fon) viz. Baptism, Confirmation, th Lord's Supper, Penance, Extreme Und rion, Orders, and Matrimony, All which do confer Grace; and whereof Baptism Confirmation, and Orders, cannot be re peated without Sacrilege. I do also receiv and admit all the received and approve Rites of the Catholick Church, in the fo Jemn Administration of the aforesaid Sa craments.

The Protestant's Note.

Observe, Christ has instituted only Two Sacraments, viz. BAPTISM, and the LORD's Supper, and the Number of Seven was never defined till a Thousand Years at least after Christ. And yet the Church ef

Church of Rome holds those accurred, who say any of the Seven is not truly and properly a Sacrament, 7 Saff. Conc. Trid.

The Fourth Popish Article.

ART: IV. All and every Thing which was declared and defined about: Original sin, and Justification, by the most boly Countil of Trent, Lembrace and receive.

The Protestant's Note:

that good Works are the Merits of a justified Person, and deserve Increase of Grace and evernal Life. Conc. Trid. Seff. 6. Can. 32. But the holy Scripture teaches, that "we are justified freely by the Grace of God, through the Redemption which is in Christ Jesus," Rom. iii. 24.

The Fifth Popish Article.

Ant. V. I do profess also, that in the Mass is offered to God a true, proper and propitiatory Sacrifice for the Quick and Dead; and that in the most holy Sacrament of the Eucharist, there is really and substantially the Body and Blood, together with the Soul and Divinity of our Lord Jesus.

A 5 Christ:

ARTICLES of the Popish Faith,

Christ; and that there is a Conversion of the whole Substance of the Bread into his Body, and of the whole Substance of the Wine into his Blood; which Conversion the Catholick Church calls Transubstantiation.

The Protestant's Note.

Observe, The Scripture fays, that "CHRIST has by one offering perfected " for ever them that are sanctified," Heb. x. 14. that " CHRIST appeared once in " the end of the world, to put away " fin by the facrifice of himfelf," Heb. ix. 26. This Popish Sacrifice of the Mass, is destructive of all the Arguments in the feventh, eighth, ninth, and tenth Chapers of that Epistle to the Hebrews; where it is proved, that our bleffed Saviour's dying once on the Cross, is a full, perfect, and sufficient Sacrifice for us Sinners. As to the Doctrine of Transubstantiation, it subverts the very Foundation on which the Credibility of the Christian Religion is built, viz. our Saviour's Miracles: It contradicts the Scripture, which fays, that we eat bread, after the Consecration of it, 1 Cor. xi. 27. It is contrary to Reason, which teaches, that the same Body

The Sixth Popish Article.

ART. VI. I do also confess, that under either Kind or Species only, whole and entire Christ, and the true Sacrament is received.

The Protestant's Note.

Observe, How can the true Sacrament be received under one Kind, when our Saviour instituted it in both Kinds, and has bid us drink as well as eat at his holy Table? The Church of Rome has therefore no more Power to deny to the Laity one Part of the Sacrament, than to take away the other Part, or the Whole.

The Seventh Popish Article.

ART. VII. I stedfastly believe there is Purgatory, and that the Souls detained therein Observe, The Blood of Jesus Christ is the only Purgatory; for "by that we "are purged from all sin," 1 John i. 7. Therefore the Popish Purgatory is a Cheat. And thereby many are encouraged to think, that a wicked Life may be reconciled to the Hope of Heaven at the last.

The Eighth Popish Article.

ART. VIII. Ialso believe that the Saints who reign with Christ, are to be worshpipped and prayed to, and that they do pray to God for us; and that their Relicks are the venerated:

The Protestant's Note.

Observe, There is neither Command nor Example in either the Old or New Testament, for praying to departed Saints. These who pray to them, give to the Creature that which is due only to God, and are thereby guilty of Ido latry. In the Rosary ordered by Pop Prus V. there are these Words to the Virgin Virgin MARY; " Hail, Holy Queen, " Mother of Mercy; our Life, " our Sweetness, and our Hope; " to Thee do we cry, poor banished. " Sons of Eve; to Thee do we fend " up our Sighs, mourning and weeping " in this Valley of Tears: Turn then, " most gracious Advocate, thy Eyes of " Mercy towards us, &c." How can there be made a more direct Prayer to Almighty God himself, than is here to a Creature? I wish they would think of this, who pray ten times to the Virgin. MARY, for once praying to Almighty. Gon, As to their Relicks, or Remains. of the Dead, their own Cassander tells us, if they were looked into, they would be found abominable Cheats: And if they were real, thy are not to be venerated or worshipped.

The Ninth Popish Article.

ART, IX, I most firmly affert, that the Images of Christ, and the Mother of God, who was always a Virgin, are to be had and retained: and that due Honour and Worship is to be given to them.

The

14 ARTICLES of the Popish Faith,

The Protestant's Note.

Observe, This Worship, which the Church of Rome has thus decreed, is (by the Practice of that Church) in kissing of Images, uncovering the Head to them, offering Incense, bowing, and making Prayers to them: They say to the Cross, "Increase Grace in the Godly, and blot out the Sins of the Guilty;" Brev. Sab. ante Domin. Pass. &c. If this be not gross Idolatry, there can be no such Thing; and I appeal to the Conscience of every Papist, who does those Things, how he thinks to escape the Guilt of that horrid Sin.

The Tenth Popish Article.

ART. X. I do also affirm, that the Power of Indulgences was left by Christ to bis Church; and that the Use of them is very helpful to Christian People.

The Protestant's Note.

observe, Instead of being helpful, they are pernicious to Mens Souls. They are grounded on Works of Supererogation, or doing more than is required, for which there is no Foundation in the Word of God.

God. Besides, this Doctrine of Indulgences and that of Purgatory, are inconsistent; for if there be a Guilt, for which a Sinner must make Satisfaction by his own personal Sufferings, how is it possible that others should take it away by their Indulgences or Pardons?

The Eleventh Popish Article.

ART. XI. I acknowledge the Holy Catholic Apostolic Roman Church to be the Mother and Mistress of all Churches; and I promise and swear true Obedience to the Pope of Rome, who is the Successor of St. Peter, the Prince of the Apostles, and Vicar of Jesus Christ.

The Protestant's Note.

Observe, There is not any Authority from Holy Scripture for setting the Church of Rome above other Churches, In the first Council of Nice, other Churches were on equal Foot with Her, In the fourth General Council, that of Calcedon, it is declared. That the Church of Constantinople should have equal Honours and Privileges with that of Rome, by Reason that the Emperor had his Seat there. The Scripture says not that Peter ever was at Rome; and yet the Papifts make it an Article of Faith that He was there. St Paul fays, he "was in nothing behind the very chiefelt "Apostles," 2 Cor. xii. 11. "and upon Oct casion he withstood Peter to the Face," Gal. ii. 11. Christ is the only Head of his Church; nor has he appointed any visible Head upon Earth. The Church of Rome has had three Popes at one time, and had two Popes striving for St. Peter's Chair about forty Years together; let the Church of Rome agree who was its Head, and the Vicar of Christ, at those Times.

The Twelfth Popish Article.

ART. XII: I also without Doubt reteive and profess all other Things delivered, defined and declared by the Sacred Canons and General Councils, and especially by the boby Council of Trent; and all Things cont any to them, with all Herefies condemned, r jected, and tursed by the Church, I likewise reject, condemn, and ourse.

The Protestant's Note.

Pope only was Infallible, and that He was above all Councils. But the Councils of Bafil and Conffance affirm a Council to be above the Pope, and to have Power to decree Matters of Faith without him. This and many other notorious Contradictions should be reconciled, before this be received as an Article of Faith. As to the curfing Part of this Article, we fay, " How can they curse, " whom God hath not curfed?" Numb. xxiii. 8. and that, " after the Way which "they call Herefy, fo we PROTESTANTS] worship the God of our Fathers; be-" lieving all Things that are written in " the Law and the Prophets," All xxiv. 14. "We rest our Faith and Hope on " this, that God hath built his Church on " the Foundation of the Apostles and " Prophets, Jesus Christ himself being " the chief Corner Stone," Ephef. ii. 20.

An Address to the LAITY.

SIRS.

THIS Sheet is defigned to point out to you at one View the great Difference between the Faith professed by the Church of ENGLAND, and that professed by the Church of ROME; and to shew likewise the Antiquity of the former, and the Novelty of a great Part of the latter.

It is very evident, that there is no Difference between us and the Church of Rome, about the truly ancient CA-THOLICK FAITH; that is what they hold as well as we. But we keep to Catholic Faith only, which the Church of Rome doth not. The Difference therefore is about their imposing new ARTICLES of FAITH, which we reject, notwithstanding their uncharitable find Censures for fo doing.

You see what just Reason we have to blame the Papills, for adding to the ancient Faith; the last Twelve Articles of their CREED, being not only without Foundation in Holy Scripture, and unknown to pure Antiquity, but of late Appointment among themselves; for it is not above One Hundred and Seventy Years since the Trent Creed was made, which is now the Standard of the Romish Faith.

It is evident from their Additions to the Ancient CREED, and imposing them as necessary to Salvation, that they are guilty of that Schifm, which they charge unjustly on us. Had they only required the Use of a few decent Ceremonies, or been wanting only in some Points of better Discipline, I know not low we could have justified our departing from the Church of Rome. But ble fince they require not only False, but dolatrous Doctrines and Practices from us, that Sin must lie at their own Door

You see likewise that Protestants are the true Catholicks sthough the Church of Rome would engross that Title to itself) because we hold to the true Catholick Fairly, from which they have departed by their new Doctrines and Worship.

Let me therefore befeech you, who profess the Protestant Religion (which is only another Name for the Christian Religion, occasioned by our protesting against the Errors of Popery) to cleave Redfastly to it. Be thankful to Almighty God for the invaluable Blessings of it; and live answerably to so divine and excellent a Religion as ours is. "I we know these Things, happy are yell ye do them," John xiii. 17.

Be not ignorant of the Devices of those of the Church of Rome, to bring us again under their." Yoke of Bondage "which neither we, nor our fathers were able to bear." It is very obvious how they disguise and palliate the Principle of their Religion, to win, us over to a better Opinion of it. It is certain that some of the Guides of that Church rather nther than lose any Persons from it, and to pervert others to it, fay, It is an indifferent Thing whether we believe the Trent Articles or not, as Purgatory, Praying to Saints, &c. We have Reafon on this Account to bless God for a good Cause; and hereby we see the Hardiness of those Men, who, notwithstanding such a Procedure, persist in damning those who cannot believe those Articles, which they themselves, on some Occasions, acknowledge to be indifferent Matters.

"Dearly beloved, flee from Idolatry," Cor. x. 14. " Little Children keep your" selves from Idols," a John v. ult.

I also intreat you of the Church of Rome, to think feriously, what Ground you have to believe the last Twelve Arring ticles of your CREED, and ancient age neither Scripture, nor any ancient Creed for their Support. If you would have diffinguish between those last Points ticles of your CREED, which have ple of your Faith, and those which go ber to fore them, and duly weigh the Difference tain between them, you would, by God's rch Bleffing, discern how agreeable the forthe mer are with the Word of God, and that that the latter are not to be proved from it. By these ARTICLES it is, that you are led to mingle the Worship of God (who only is the Object of Religious Worship) with Worship to the Creatures; which is highly injurious to the Honour of God our Saviour, a great Scandal to the Christian Religion, and for those Reasons must be dangerous to your Souls. We judge not your final State, as you do ours, fuch Judgment belongs to GOD alone: Only you are hereby warned against the false Doctrines, and finful Ways of Worship in your Church. And furely, if you defire to be faved, and would not be misled, you should consider and examine those Things which fo nearly concern your eternal Happiness. Judge ye, what Account must be given to God, for imposing fuch false Doctrines on the World; and in Maintenance of them, to persecute and cruelly murder fo many Thousands of innocent Persons, as the Church of Rome has, where she has had Power to do it.
